Who may enter

The competition is open to all English or CLIL teachers at public or concertada schools in the Balearic Islands (Primary and Secondary schools).

Description

“Let’s Create a Storybook Together” is the new writing competition organised by APABAL (Associació del Professorat d’Anglès de les Illes Balears) aimed at encouraging teachers to collaborate with their students to create a twenty-page storybook in English that will be published for others to enjoy.

The twenty-page story can be on the topic of your choice: just write the text, add the artwork and audio using the storyjumper editing tool (storyjumper.com) and you are on your way to presenting your first storybook to the world!

It is the ideal opportunity for teachers and students to show off their creative skills and have fun whilst producing an online book. The story and the art work should be original and be submitted in English. Any budding actors will also have the opportunity to add voice to any characters they create!

The winning story links will be published in the APABAL website and Twitter and all the storybooks will be available on the storybook.com website.

Entry fee

There is no entry fee

Prize

There will be two categories: Primary and Secondary

The winning teacher from each category will receive 200€ plus a gift card for a hardcopy of their book (from our sponsors at storyjumper.com).
